Report

Title: Telugu Basha Dinotsavam.

Date: 29.08.2019.

Venue: Seminar Hall.

Time: 11.30 A.M.

The department of Telugu and IQAC has organised the celebrations of Telugu basha dinotsavam on the eve of the birth anniversary of Gidugu Ramamurthy Panthulu garu a famous Telugu writer on a grand note, at 11.30 am, in seminar hall on 25.10.2019 with the aim of enlightening the students about the significance and the need to protect Telugu language. The programme was presided by J Krishnamurthy, In-Charge Principal. All the teaching staff and students along with Smt G Usharani, Lecturer in Telugu were participated in it. The Principal and teachers explained the students about the significance of Telugu language and advised the students not to run blindly in the name of foreign languages. Smt G Usharani spoke about the history, evolution of Telugu language and about the great writers and their works in Telugu. She asserted that protecting Telugu means not only the protection of a language but the entire culture of Telugu speaking states. Then the teachers and students too expressed their views about the greatness of Telugu language and Telugu literary works and the students made a pledge to read all-time greatest works in Telugu literature as a tribute to Gidugu Rama Murthy Panthulu. Then the programme concluded enthusiastically with national anthem.

OUTCOMES: Students will

- Appreciate different literary forms in Telugu.
- Develop the habit of reading Telugu literary works.
- Understand that mother tongue helps to learn other languages.
