On April 11, 2022, a significant event unfolded at the Seminar Hall of SRGDC in Punganur. The occasion marked the birth anniversary celebration of the eminent social reformer, Mahatma Jyothi Rao Phule. The event was organized by T Rajasekhar, a dedicated lecturer in Economics at SRGDC, and was presided over by Dr. Y Rajasekhar, the esteemed Principal of the institution. The event commenced with paying homage to Mahatma Jyothi Rao Phule. The attendees observed a minute of silence to honor the legacy of the social reformer. Dr. Y Rajasekhar delivered keynote address, shedding light on the life, contributions, and philosophy of Mahatma Jyothi Rao Phule. The speech emphasized Phule's pioneering efforts in championing education and social equality. The programme was a resounding success, bringing together students, faculty, and guests to commemorate the legacy of one of India's foremost social reformers. The event not only paid tribute to Mahatma Jyothi Rao Phule but also served as a platform for intellectual exchange and introspection on the principles he stood for.

OUTCOMES: Students will

- Engage in social reform and work towards the upliftment of marginalized communities, following the footsteps of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule.
- Promote education for all, especially for the lower castes and women.
- Foster a sense of unity and solidarity among people, emphasizing the common goal of creating a more just and equal society.
